

Center for Trauma & Embodiment at JRI presents the 5th International Conference on Trauma & Embodiment

April 5-7, 2024 • Online

give.jri.org/conference

About CFTE

Center for Trauma & Embodiment at JRI is a global health initiative dedicated to researching and developing embodied trauma care models.

For over 20 years, CFTE has been a global leader in empirically validated, clinical interventions for complex trauma and PTSD, having established the original framework for trauma informed programming used by many other organizations today.

Our trainers, facilitators, and participants come from over 40 countries, territories and First Nations. In 2022 alone, more than 30,000 people around the world participated in at least one of our care models by way of individual or group sessions, trainings, or research studies.

Leader in Social Justice

Dave Emerson, YACEP
Co-Director

Jenn Turner, LMHC
Co-Director

Sydney Spears, Ph.D
Leadership Member

CFTE at Justice Resource Institute is a 501(c)3 non-profit based in Boston, Massachusetts.

Our programs include:

Trauma Center Trauma Sensitive Yoga

Trauma Informed Weight Lifting

ReScripted: A theatre-based program for trauma-impacted youth

International Conference on Trauma & Embodiment

The International Conference on Trauma & Embodiment

Center for Trauma & Embodiment's annual conference brings together leaders in yoga, movement, fitness, mental health, & trauma care from around the world to share and explore innovations in trauma healing that center the body.

Past keynote presenters include:

2023: Justice Williams & Kenneth Shirley

2022: Jacari Harris & Aysha Upchurch

2021: Quentin Vennie & Ellice Patterson

2019: Dr. Thema Bryant & Jared Kass, PhD

CFTE intentionally platforms keynote and breakout presenters from all over the world who are members of and work within communities that experience greater levels of historical or intergenerational trauma from institutional oppression and systemic racism.

2024 Conference

Presented fully online via Classy Live, our upcoming conference, hosted by CFTE leadership, comprises three keynote speakers and twelve breakout presentations along with movement, meditation, and reflection breaks. Speakers are from Australia, China, France, New Zealand, Palestine, Puerto Rico, Syria, Turkey, and the United States.

CFTE offers a sliding scale registration fee from $59-$99 to enhance accessibility, along with ASL and Spanish language support.

Schedule:

Friday, April 5
6:00 - 8:30 PM EDT

Keynote Speaker:

Jase Te Patu
Aotearoa New Zealand

Saturday, April 6
9:00AM - 1:00PM EDT

Keynote Speaker:

Dr. Tiffany Johnson
Georgia, United States

Sunday, April 7
9:00 - 11:45 AM EDT

Keynote Speaker:

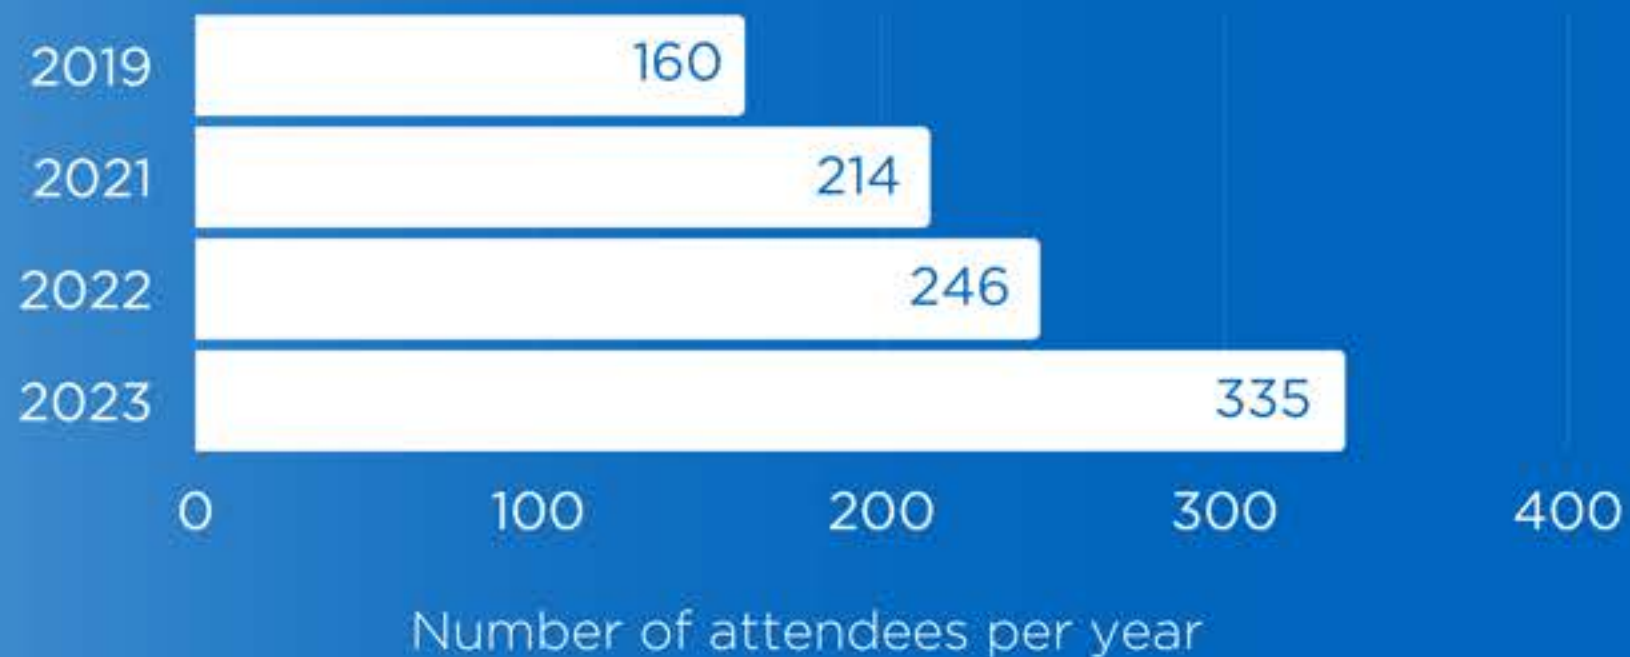

Marien Torres-Lopez
Puerto Rico

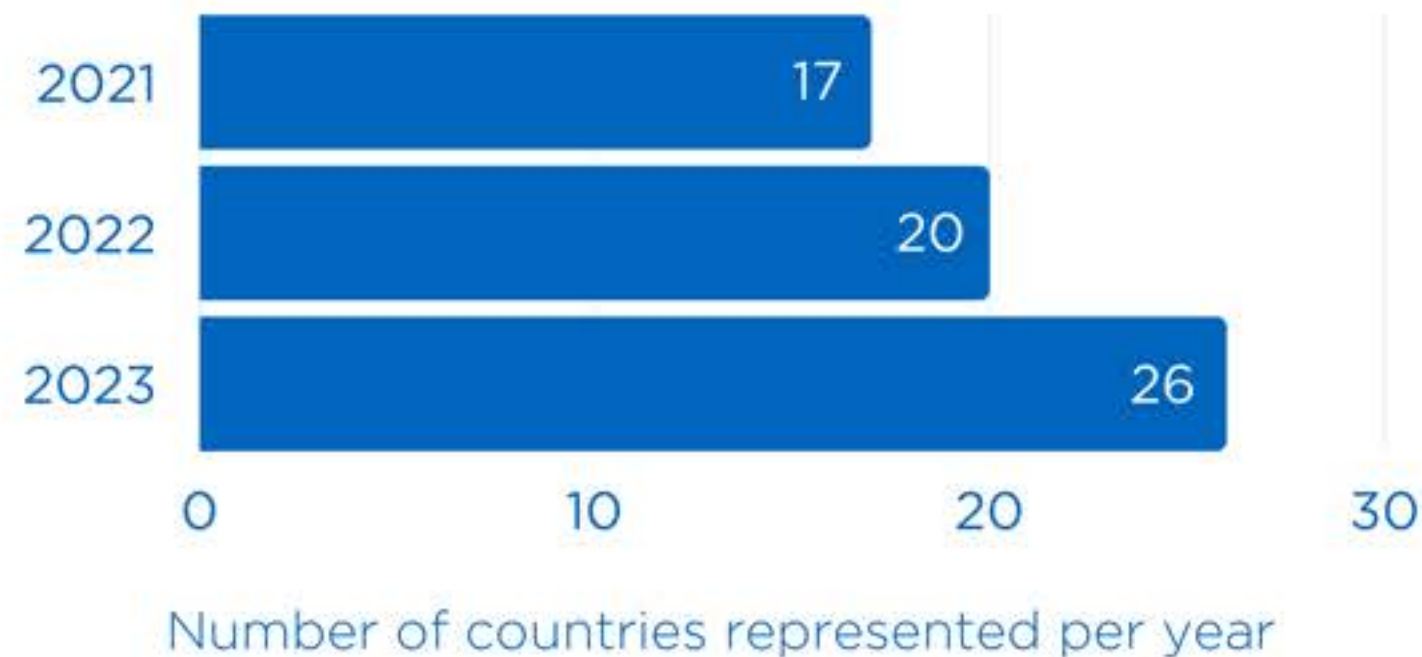

A Growing Audience

Conference attendees include fitness and mental health professionals, trauma care and community providers, and yoga teachers. In 2023, 80% of attendees were certified trauma sensitive yoga facilitators.

Over the past four events, attendance has grown steadily at an average of 27% per year, with 1 year off due to the global pandemic.

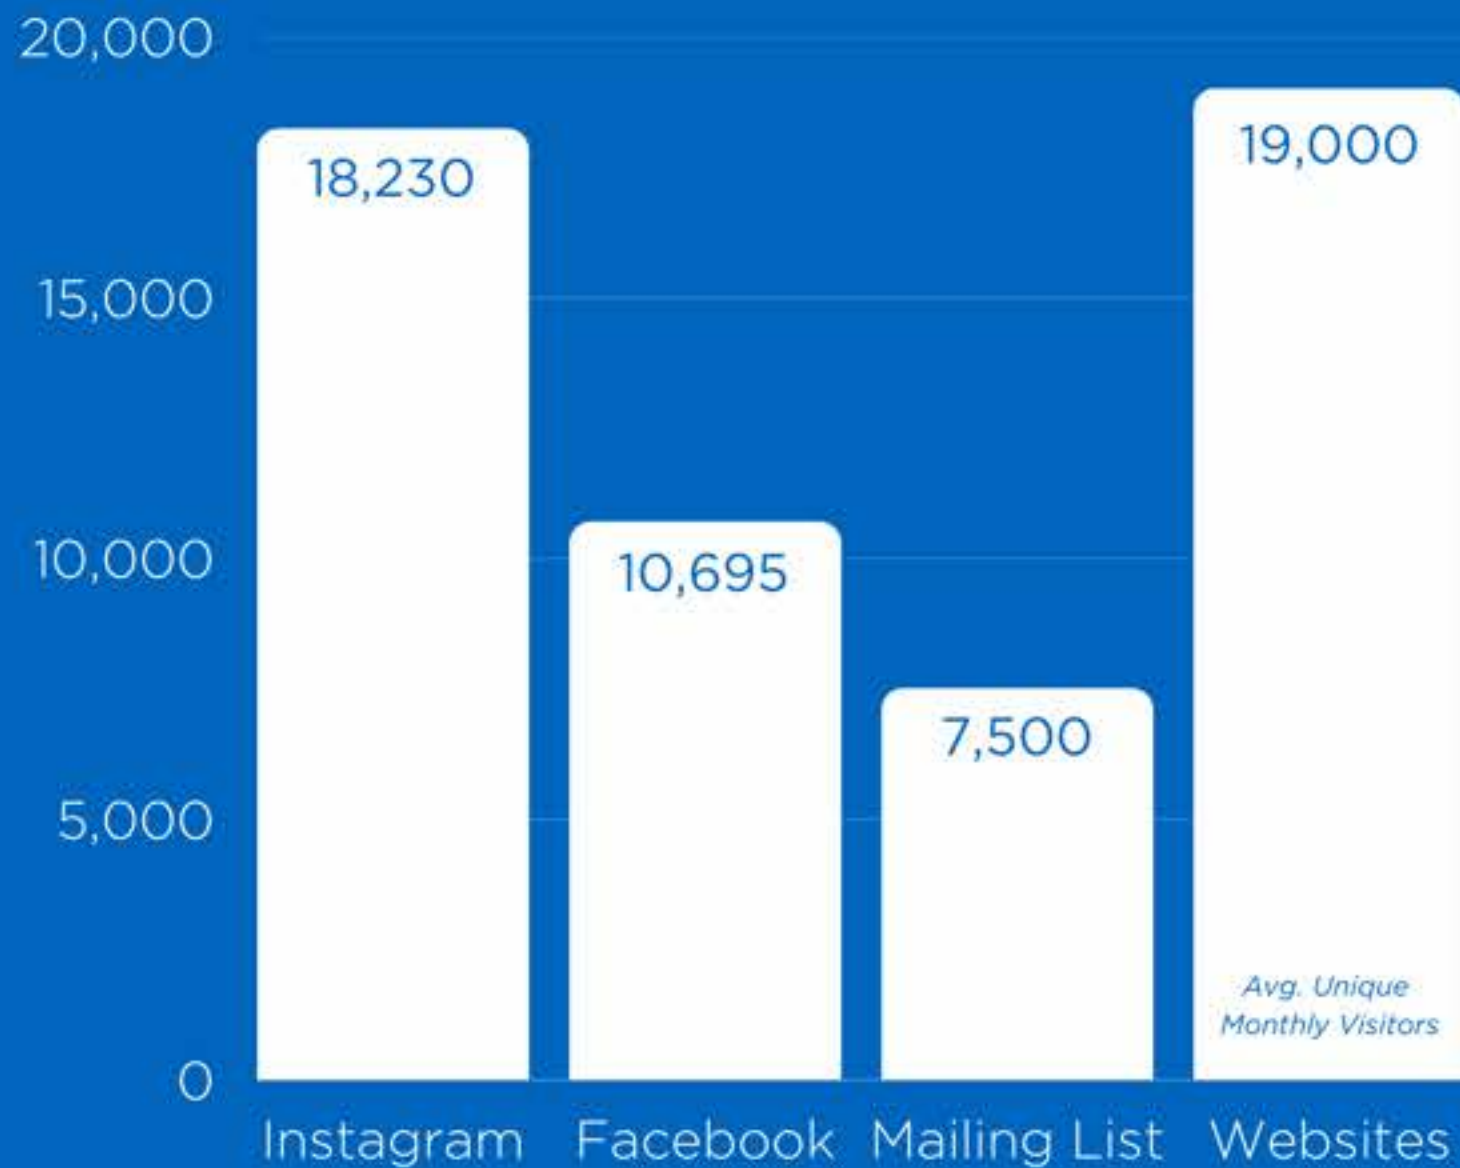

In 2023, 335 people tuned in from 26 different countries around the world.

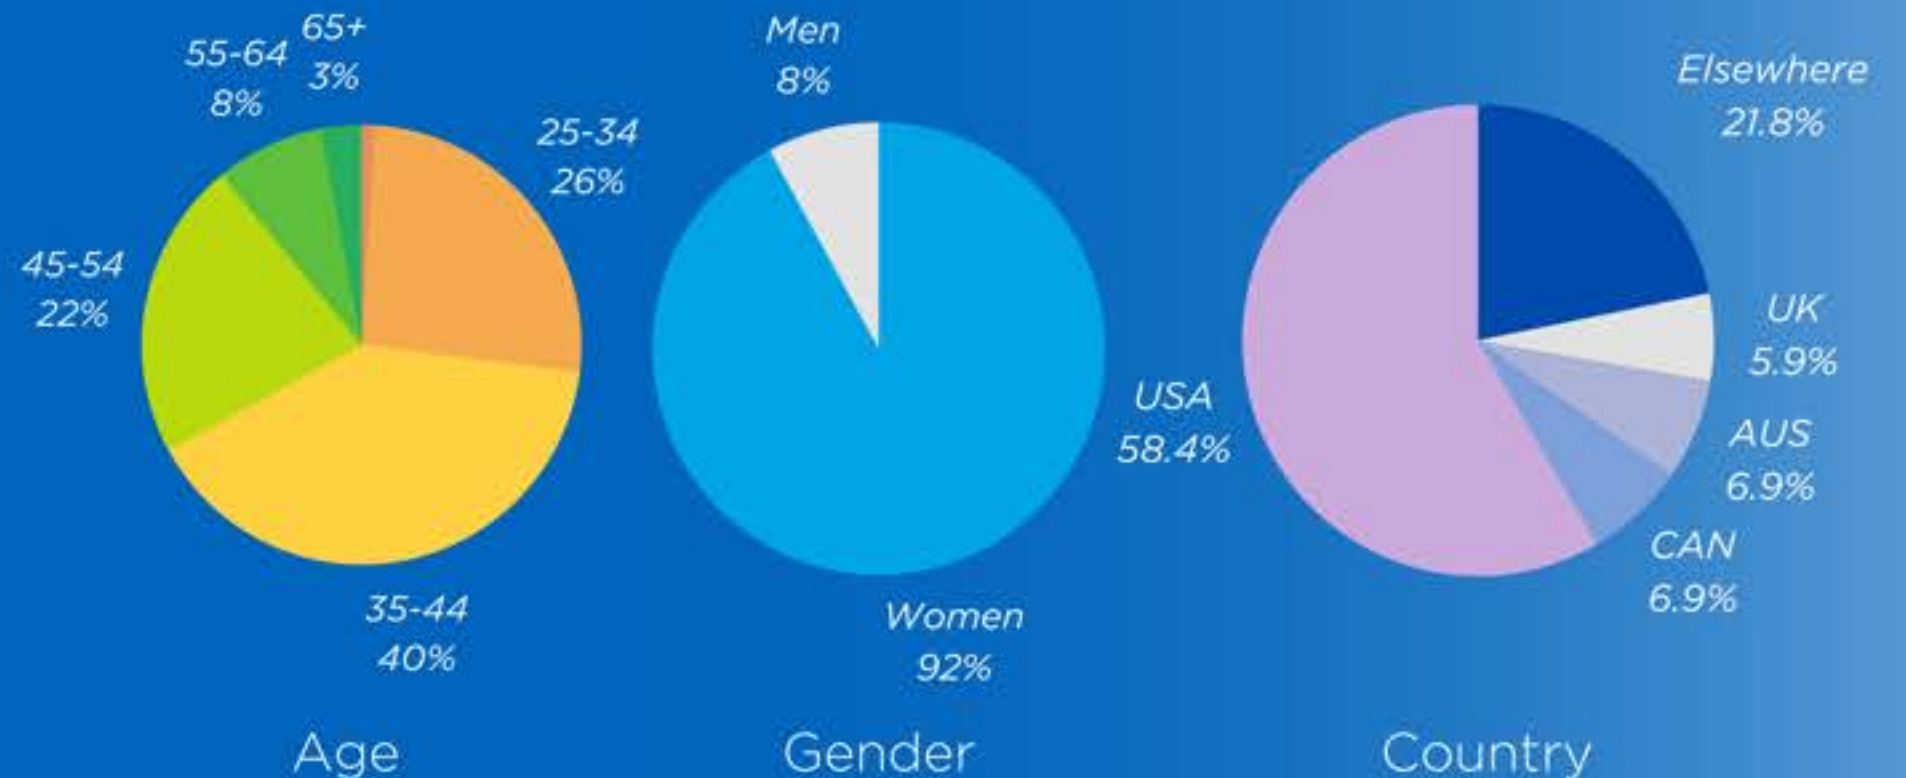

Our Digital Reach

Combined audience of unique website visitors, social media followers, & email subscribers:

With an ever expanding network of practitioners and participants, we are able to connect with thousands of people around the world in an instant. Donors to CFTE can benefit from increased visibility to our worldwide audience of followers, subscribers, and website visitors as they interact with our digital content and channels.

Social media demographics:

Sponsorship Benefits

Your donation supports our direct service initiatives for people impacted by complex or historical trauma and PTSD, including veterans, indigenous communities, gender non-conforming youth, and refugees.

To make your donation, proceed to the conference registration page or reach out to our Director of Development, Sandra Mazur:

give.jri.org/conference • smazur@jri.org

Power Lifters - $10,000+

Official Conference Presenter
20 Full Access Tickets
Logo in all conference marketing materials
Verbal recognition during the event
Offer "promo code" to attendees

Strength Builders - $5,000+

10 Full Access Tickets
Logo on conference page and social media
Offer "promo code" to attendees

Mindful Movers - $2,500+

5 Full Access Tickets
Logo on conference page and social media

Choice Makers - $1,000+

2 Full Access Tickets
Logo on conference page and social media

Engagers - $500+

1 Full Access Ticket
Logo on conference page

Excellent, informative, joyful

La experiencia fue muy significativa y enriquecedora, distintos profesionales, diversidad cultural.

What a nourishing weekend... went so smoothly

Excellent, relevant and a rich diversity of presenters

Seamless technology with incredible information to assist with growth and overall awareness.

Excellent. Either I've grown or the conference has or both, but I got so much out of this conference.

Absolutely reinvigorated into the work I do after this. It was very inclusive, with every single session expertly presented in a relatable way.

Wonderful!